

The Camoes Prize in Portuguese

The Camoes Prize in Portuguese is awarded annually to the outstanding undergraduate in Portuguese. This prize was established in 1975 with a grant from the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation in Lisbon. The award consists of a certificate and a monetary prize.

1975-Robert Nelson Anderson
1976-Michael Eugene Williams
1977-John Stephen Quakenbush
1978-Michael James Thornhill
1979-Cranford Oliver Plyler III
1980-Mary Virginia Chambers
1981-Randall Carey Scarborough
1982-Mitchell Harrison Hardy
1983-Johlyn Leigh Dale
1984-Paul Steven Laughman
1985-Alisa Wanda Atkinson
1986-Richard Wade Ragland
1987-Jan Susan Weydemeyer
1988-Elisabeth Ann Johnson
1989-Gerald Davis Ballance
1990-Eric Timothy Helms Jr.
1991-Adam Yeats McMillian
1992-Frederick Wright Willis III
1993-Rebecca Brown Cline
1994-Valerie Lynn Morgan
1995-Jana Maria Friesen
1996-Tiffany Tamisha Jefferson
1997-Naomi Gila Senzer
1998-Carlese Evanageline Linker
1999-Jennifer Jemi Johnson
2000-Jean Marinho Pinner
2001-Kathryn O'Leary
2002-Jonathan William Crisp
2003-Michal Gayle Hobbs