

The Undergraduate Prize in Economics

This award has been established by the Department of Economics to honor excellence in economic studies. It is given annually to the undergraduate majoring in economics who is judged to be the most outstanding based on performance in major and related courses.

(revised version above. Original (1983-1986) included writing of an honors thesis. Removed in 1987 because Honors Program did not have a recipient named in time for the ceremony.)

1983-Michael Robert Sefchick
1984-Robert Joseph Bach and Kenneth Gaines Smith
1985-Allen Keith Robertson
1986-Elizabeth Marie Orazem
1987-Donna Marie Grote and Marcus William Trathen
1988-Elizabeth Lanier Beaver
1989-Julia Ann Olson
1990-Jeremy John M. Kelly
1991-Rafael Otilio Martin
1992-Stanley Wilkes Black
1993-Jill McIntosh Jacobs
1994-Theodore Molloy Wieseman
1995-Michael Anthony Dilorio and Alan Mark Hartdegen
1996-Richard Paul Dearing
1997-John Cowles Neiman Jr.
1998-Ashley Susanne Parrott
1999-Lindsee Ellen McPhail
2000-Shaun Clisby Kelley
2001-Brett Michael Hanlon
2002-Craig Joseph Steffen
2003-Elizabeth Suzanne Thomasson