

The Ferebee Taylor Award

Inaugurated by the Class of 1982 as its gift to the University, this award recognizes the principle of honor as one of the University's most hallowed ideals. It is given in honor of Ferebee Taylor, chancellor of the University, 1972-1980, under whose leadership and commitment the judicial reform movement and the revitalization of the Honor Code was brought to fruition. The award is given annually to the member of the senior class who has made the greatest contribution to the continued vitality and strength of the Honor Code in the community.
