

The George Moses Horton Award for Multicultural Leadership

This award honors a nineteenth century poet and friend of students and faculty on this campus. His freedom from slavery was purchased in part by funds generated through his popular verse. The award recognizes the senior who has demonstrated outstanding leadership, initiative, and creativity in multicultural education programs. This award is given by the Sonja Haynes Stone Black Cultural Center.

1991-Sabrina Dawn Evans
1992-Eric Brent Rosen
1993-Deepthiman Krishne Gowda
1994-Toure' Sekou Claiborne
1995-Carlos Lavon Pauling
1996-Taunya Narrell Monroe and Johnnie Earl Artis Jr.
1997-Robin Rajen Sukhadia
1998-Dimitrios Panagiotis Hondros
1999-Eric Ian Farmer
2000-Amanda Ruth Greene
2001-Jermain La'Nard Reeves
2002-Neera Makwana
2003-Reena Arora