

The Louis D. Rubin, Jr. Prize in Creative Writing

Established in 1987, this award honors a distinguished professor emeritus of English and scholar of southern American literature whose work with talented undergraduates in creative writing was widely appreciated. A monetary award is presented annually to the outstanding fiction writer in the senior class. The recipient is selected by faculty members in the Creative Writing Program.

1987 – Kaye Gibson
1988 – Mary Winifred Hood
1989 – Jane Elizabeth Meekins
1990 – Lydia Millet
1991 – Gregg Alan Hecimovich
1992 – Joshua Warren Pate
1993 – Matthew Barrett Gross
1994 – Hyonmyong Paul Cho
1995 – William Arthur Conescu
1996 – James Matthew Vollmer
1997 – Ruth Brooke Calton
1998 – Claire Elisabeth Smith
1999 – Catherine Tift Merritt
2000 – Elizabeth Anne Lassiter
2001-Patrick William Reynolds
2002-Wendy Jane Spitzer
2003-Guney Acipayamli