

The Mary Turner Lane Award in Women's Studies

This award honors a senior judged by the faculty in the Women's Studies curriculum to have made an outstanding contribution to research on women's issues. Its purpose is to further academic research in the expanding field of Women's Studies, which was established on the campus in 1978 by Mary Turner Lane, an ardent advocate of women everywhere.

2001-Kathryn Lorraine Kooistra

2002-Lucy Elizabeth Melvin

2003-Natalie Ann Phillips