

The Worth Award

Established in 1883, this award was given annually in the Department of Philosophy through 1919. Reinstated in 1977 by the department, this oldest academic award, based on course performance and faculty recommendation, is given for sustained excellence in undergraduate study of philosophy.

1977 – William Eric O’Brian, Jr.
1978 – Susan Marie Lyons
1979 – Robert Lyman
1980 – Frank Farnum Brown
1981 – Richard Byron Whisnant
1982 – Seth Matthew Holtzman
1983 – John Osborne Ellis
1984 – Richard David Owens
1985 – David Clements Lamberth
1986 – Jeremy Joshua Ofseyer
1987 – Steven Joseph Emery
1988 – Sherrill Elizabeth Toler
1989 – Christopher Heath Wellman
1990 – Leon Clyde Lowder, III
1991 – Edward Eugene Powell, Jr.
1992 – Andrew Earl Coats and Linda Christine Radzik
1993 – Cameron Geoffrey McDonough
1994 – Curtis Scott Holmes
1995 – Brent Buchanan Hetherwick
1996 – Richard Paul Dearing
1997 – Nathan Robert Williams
1998 – Lawrence Ray Buchanan, Jr.
1999 – Anne Wilson Neville
2000 – Melissa Susan Putman
2001-Justin Matthew Brown and Stephen James Lenhart
2002-Joseph Andrew Barnes
2003-Bradley William Morris